

Caring Safe Hands

Gesture to the watch to be united while caring for others setting aside differences between black, white and brown. These hands, i.e., our caring hands, connected with each other in a way to ensure care and protection with complete safety to those in need of it. This representation of the aims of Indian Confederation of Healthcare Accreditation (ICHA) through the colorful interaction of hands, which are joined together in hope, peace, prosperity, mutual respect & security throughout the world illustrates the singular goals of all ICHA fraternity. May all, who see this painting, work for these aims and aspirations for our world and beyond, as hands spread out in all directions.
